Click “Add Extension”

The image shows a screenshot of the MyLOFT web application interface. A modal dialog box is open, titled "MyLOFT browser extension". At the top of the dialog, there is a progress bar with four steps: "Accept Terms" (checked), "Select Role" (checked), "Select Interests" (checked), and "Add Extension" (current step, indicated by a circled '4'). The main heading of the dialog is "MyLOFT browser extension" with the instruction "Click the 'Add Extension'". Below this, there is a diagram showing a green shield with a checkmark and the text "100% Secure". To the left of the shield, it says "eContent Subscription Data" and to the right, "Other Data". A globe icon is also present. Below the diagram, there is a paragraph of text: "The MyLOFT browser extension is required to access your library subscribed eResources and start saving articles. Click the 'Add Extension' button to install or enable the MyLOFT browser extension." At the bottom of the dialog, there are two buttons: "Skip" and "Add Extension". A blue arrow points from the text "Click the 'Add Extension' button" to the "Add Extension" button. The background of the application is dimmed, showing a sidebar with navigation options like "Home", "eResources", "Collections", and "Favourites". The top right corner of the application has icons for a document, a bell, and a user profile. The bottom left corner of the application shows the version "V 2.0.23", "Powered by MyLOFT", and "© 2024". The bottom center of the application has the text "AICurated for you" and a "BETA" badge. The bottom right corner has a "SHOW MORE >" button and a help icon.
